"Licensed, insured, and bonded, Potato Construction Inc. is a "young" company full of energy, enthusiasm, ingenuity, and is ready to jump any hurdles along with way. Our slogan is: "when others can't, we can" We have built over 300 facilities and homes in the past few years in the West, including California, Washington, and Nevada. Due to our team's hard works, we are expanding at a solid speed, and are building a good reputation in the industry. With over 10 years of construction management and building experience in both commercial and residential projects, we know exactly what it takes to meet the challenges, to put out the fires, and have your doors open on time."
